

Vanessa Denjo was born in 1994, in Chicago, USA. In 2007 she relocated to Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina. She began writing poetry at age 13, initially in English and later in Bosnian. Vanessa finds her primary inspiration in the works of Ewa Lipska and her poetry has been published on the Anna Lit portal for female writers. Since 2015, she has pursued her passion for darkwave and synth-electro music as a DJ. Additionally, since 2020, Denjo works as an English teacher at Helen Doron School in Sarajevo.