

Eldina Kožljak was born in 1997 in Sarajevo. After finishing elementary school, she enrolled in the High School of Applied Arts, in the Department of Advertising Graphics. She graduated in 2016 in the class of Professor Milijana Lagumdžija, receiving the title of art technician for advertising graphics. In the same year, she continued her studies at the Academy of Fine Arts in Sarajevo, the Department of Printmaking, in the class of Professor Avdo Žiga. During her studies, she served as vice president of the Students' Council of the Academy of Fine Arts during the 2018/2019 academic year. Since 2012, she has participated in many group exhibitions. Besides printmaking, she works with various other art mediums, primarily focusing on depictions of the marine world and the exploration of human psychology. She perceives the sea and its creatures as an endless source of inspiration, resulting in numerous printmaking cycles.
